The image displays a musical score for Part B. 1616, consisting of two systems of staves. The top system includes a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a piano staff (treble and bass clefs). The bottom system includes a grand staff and a piano staff. The music is written in a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 2/4 time signature. The score features various musical notations, including notes, rests, and dynamic markings such as mf (mezzo-forte). Specific markings include "a 2." above a note in the first system and "sul D" and "sul A" above notes in the second system. The piano part in the second system shows a complex, fast-moving line with many sixteenth notes.

This musical score is for Part B. 1616 and consists of three systems of staves. The first system contains ten staves, with the first six staves grouped by a brace on the left. The second system contains two staves. The third system contains five staves, with the first staff labeled "Viola unis." The music is written in a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 2/4 time signature. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings, with "p" (piano) appearing frequently. The score is arranged in a traditional format with staves grouped by a brace on the left.

The musical score is written for a large ensemble, including strings, woodwinds, brass, and percussion. The score is written in a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 2/4 time signature. The music is characterized by complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and dynamic markings such as f (forte), ff (fortissimo), and mf (mezzo-forte). The score includes various articulations, including trills and tremolos, and is marked with a variety of musical symbols and notation. The score is divided into two systems, with the first system containing measures 1 through 10 and the second system containing measures 11 through 20. The music is written for a large ensemble, including strings, woodwinds, brass, and percussion. The score is written in a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 2/4 time signature. The music is characterized by complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and dynamic markings such as f (forte), ff (fortissimo), and mf (mezzo-forte).
